Disclosure and Barring Record Information

An offer of employment is conditional upon the Trust receiving an Enhanced Disclosure from the DBS which the Trust considers to be satisfactory. If you are successful in your application you will be required to complete a Criminal Records Bureau Disclosure Application Form. Any information disclosed will be handled in accordance with the Code of Practice published by the Disclosure and Barring Service.

The Trust is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and therefore all convictions, cautions, reprimands or final warnings that are not "protected" as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013) must be declared. The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account. If you have a criminal record this will not automatically debar you from employment. Instead, each case will be assessed fairly by reference to the Trust's objective assessment procedure (a copy of which is available from the Trust on request).

Have you been convicted by the courts of any criminal offence that is not protected?

Yes / No

Is there any relevant court action pending against you?

Yes / No

Have you ever received a caution, reprimand or final warning from the police that is not protected?

Yes / No

If 'YES' to any of the above, please provide details on a separate sheet and send this in a sealed envelope marked "confidential" with your Application Form.
